L: What we know we cannot un-know, when we experience God's love, we cannot un-experience that welcome, when we have enjoyed the feast, we cannot pretend we have not been filled.

C: With you, Lord, there is no turning back, no returning to what once was, for we journey ever forward in faith.

L: Let us come to worship God,

C: in whom we place our trust.

L: Let us come and raise our voices in praise

C: to the God of all that is old and new.

L: Let us come whether young or old

C: knowing that we are each precious and loved.

L: Let us come together

C: and praise the Lord! Amen.

*MORNING PRAYER

God of one and God of all we are forever thankful for all that you have given us, for families, food and shelter, for education and healthcare, for freedom to speak of our faith and minds to explore the wonders of the world. History reminds us that we have not always coped with change and have sometimes caused others harm by our choices and rules, Lord, you sent Jesus to help us discover more of you and to draw us into a deeper relationship with you: we long to continue the work Jesus began, we long to teach peace, to endure justice for all, to ensure equality and fairness for all people. May your kingdom come and your will be done. Amen

Hymn of Praise (UMH) 430 O Master Let Me Walk with Thee

Prayer Time – Please share your joys as well as your prayers.

TIME OF PRAYER (FWS) 2193 Lord, Listen to Your Children

THE LORD'S PRAYER – Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptations but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen

Party with the Preacher
